The re-edit hasn't been posted and - aside from the footage with text - I have so far edited out all the footage after 26:21. Please let me know if there is anything else you see that needs to be edited.

Would you mind re-editing, taking down the last six minutes or so during which I talk about indictments, etc? Or, I could give you another interview to replace the whole thing with if you think cutting off the last part might make it all abrupt. Let me know.
